You'll also have time to assimilate what you've learnt, deepen your own SoulCollage® practice, experience the powerful synergy between people passionate about SoulCollage® and enjoy a delightful, un-touristy part of a uniquely beautiful country. The Training will be in English with Portuguese translation as needed.

You'll acquire a strong, solid knowledge of SoulCollage® facilitation and be able to home in to your own personal style as a Facilitator. Learn how you can deliver inspiring SoulCollage® workshops, delve further into your own creativity and take some important steps in your own SoulCollage® journey.

The Training will be held at Vila dos Castanheiros, in the village of Paio Mendes, near the World Heritage town of Tomar in central Portugal. Vila dos Castanheiros is a family-run guest house with its own enclosed gardens set in unspoilt countryside.

SoulCollage®: an empowering blend of creativity and self-exploration

SoulCollage® is an intuitive creative process. You create a deck of collaged cards each representing a distinct aspect of the unique person you are and learn how to tap into your own wisdom by consulting them. By exploring the many facets of your personality, your strengths, weaknesses, friends & family, guides & mentors and the forces which mold and motivate you as an individual, you develop your understanding and appreciation of your own life story. As your deck of SoulCollage® cards evolves, it becomes an ever more nuanced reflection of you as an individual and an increasingly valuable resource for guidance and meditation.

Facilitating SoulCollage®: personal growth and the power of creativity

If you are fired by the thought of expanding your interest in personal growth and the healing power of creativity, then training as a SoulCollage® Facilitator could be a transformative next step for you.

Sharing your enthusiasm for SoulCollage® can be very rewarding. You can facilitate SoulCollage® in many different contexts, from gathering with your friends to do SoulCollage® together, organising SoulCollage® workshops in your community or bringing SoulCollage® into your working life to expand and complement what you're already offering.

What you learn in a SoulCollage® Facilitator Training

You will:

- Inspire your workshop participants by venturing further into your own SoulCollage® practice;

- Network with other people who share your passion for SoulCollage® and want to take it out into the world.
